

Web Links

e-publications

The Global Built Environment Review (GBER) is a fully refereed electronically published quarterly journal. It aims to have a wide international readership comprising of architects, planners, developmentalists, environmentalists and students from both the western and the developing world. Although the focus of GBER is the 'Built Environment', it also intends to include debates from the perspectives of the related macro socio-economic, political, and developmental issues.

www.edgehill.ac.uk/gber

Harvard Design Magazine aims to provide a forum for thoughtful and articulate practitioners, journalists, and academics, primarily from architecture landscape architecture, and urban design and planning. Essays, images, discussions, book reviews, and recent projects appear regularly.

www.gsd.harvard.edu/research/publications/hdm/

Architronic is a scholarly refereed journal, exploring the new ranges of architectural communication available through digital media. It is a platform for both presenting and reviewing research as a journal, and a forum for stimulating dialogue on emerging ideas.

www.architronic.saed.kent.edu

PLAN, the newsletter of the School of Architecture and Planning, MIT, is published both on paper and on-line. To receive immediate email notification when stories are posted on-line, send your request to plan-news@mit.edu.

www.alberti.mit.edu/plan

Conferences

Designing for the 21st Century

7-12 December 2004, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

This event will make a special effort to provide opportunities for the growing number of practitioners and promoters of universal design to engage with each other as multi-disciplinary colleagues.

Web: www.designfor21st.org/

E-mail: info@AdaptiveEnvironments.org

Architecture and Identity: The Making of Cultural Identity in Contemporary Architecture.

6 December 2004, Berlin, Germany.

Web: www.architecture-identity.de/

E-mail: info@architecture-identity.de

Lake 2004: International Conference on Conservation, Restoration, and Management of Lakes and Coastal Wetlands

9-13 December 2004, Bhubaneswar, Orissa, India

An International Conference on Conservation, Restoration and Management of Lakes and Coastal Lagoons.

E-mail: swadhyn@yahoo.com

Deadline for abstracts: 15 August 2004

The International Conference in Future Vision and Challenges for Urban Development

20-22 December 2004, Cairo, Dokki, Egypt

Building codes and standards, sustainability of urban development, innovation in structural and geotechnical eng., environmental eng., project management, preservation of historical areas.

Web: www.hbrc.edu.eg/

E-mail: confhbrc@netscape.net

Deadline for abstracts: 15 June 2004

Design for Diversity, 36th Annual Conference of the Environmental Design Research Association (EDRA)

27 April-1 May 2005, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Web: www.conferencealerts.com/www.edra.org

E-mail: chaudhury@sfu.ca

Deadline for abstracts: 1, October 2004.

Vernacular Architecture Forum 2005 Annual Meeting

13 April 2005, Tucson, Arizona, United States.

Web: www.vernaculararchitectureforum.org/

E-mail: ldriemey@bu.edu

Passive and Low Energy Cooling for the Built Environment (Palenc2005) conference

19-21 May 2005, Santorini, Cyclades, Greece.

The scope of this conference includes all aspects of technology dealing with the summer performance of buildings.

Web: www.palenc2005.conferences.gr/

E-mail: palenc2005@heliotopos.net

Deadline for abstracts: 30 September, 2004.